

4 DEVILS

Hell and High Water

The Regent Theatre, Yarram
ONE NIGHT ONLY!

Thursday 24 April 7.30pm

A play in six acts presented by The Regent Theatre and Gippsland Regional Arts written by Lily Hibberd

“4 Devils” was screened on the opening night of the Regent Theatre, on 18 June 1930. This 1929 F.W. Murnau film is famous today because all prints have been lost. In a one-night live show performed by local residents, some the key characters behind two of Yarram’s picture theatres come back from the past in an attempt to restage the lost film.
